INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Author Responsibilities

STEF distributes its technical publications throughout the world and wants to ensure that the material submitted to its publications is properly available to the readership of those publications. Authors must ensure that their Work meets generally accepted professional writing standards, including originality, authorship, author responsibilities and author misconduct. It is the responsibility of the authors, not STEF, to determine whether disclosure of their material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it. Statements and opinions given in work published by STEF are the expression of the authors.

Author/Employer Rights

If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, STEF assumes that when you sign this Form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this Form. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this Form as the Author.

STEF Copyright Ownership

It is the formal policy of STEF to own the copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of STEF, its authors and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others. STEF distributes its technical publications throughout the world and does so by various means such as hard copy and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate its publications, and articles contained therein, for inclusion in various compendiums, collective works, databases and similar publications.

Reprint/Republishing Policy

STEF requires that the consent of the first-named author and employer be sought as a condition to granting reprint or republication rights to others or for permitting use of a Work for promotion or marketing purposes.

THIS FORM MUST ACCOMPANY THE SUBMISSION OF THE AUTHOR'S MANUSCRIPT.
Questions about the submission of the form or manuscript must be sent to the publication's editor.
